

Dear _____,

Santa told me that you like to read. Did you know that I love to read too? This year, I thought it would be fun for us to form our own book club. I am so excited to enjoy some fun books with you! Over the next couple of weeks, we will count down to Christmas enjoying a fun book each day. Some will rhyme, some will be silly, and some will take us on an adventure! Are you as excited as I am? Let's go!

Your friend,
